Financially conservative advisors? Yes. Conventional advisors? No. Not by a long shot.

Elite athletes work with personal trainers to reach their fullest potential, which is the role we play in our clients' financial lives. We help you maintain the discipline and focus required to hit spending, saving, growth, and life goals.

Combining investment management with financial planning and project-managed implementation greatly enhances a client's probability of maintaining their standard of living in the future.

Successful professionals, primarily scientists, doctors, finance & tech executives, and engineers, work with Journey to implement personal and intelligent plans. Journey also provides financial advisory services as an executive benefit for the professional team, such as at a foundation at a leading Boston Hospital.

Journey Wealth Partner's investment philosophy is grounded in a conservative, evidence-based approach: implementing expertly constructed, efficient, low-cost, well-diversified, risk-adjusted portfolios, and using best practices for risk & tax management, education funding, wealth preservation, growth and income, and retirement income withdrawal strategies.

Journey is a fee-only, independent Registered Investment Advisor and Peggy McGillin, CFP®, MBA, is the owner of Journey Wealth Partners in Concord, Massachusetts. We invite you to visit us for a complimentary discovery meeting and to meet the rest of the Journey team of CFP® Professionals.

Colonial Stores is a women's specialty store with department store selections. Bob Petersen, born and raised in Concord, began working at Colonial Stores in 1962 as a stock boy while attending Concord-Carlisle High School. In 1970 he purchased the store, and with the help of a qualified staff, the store has evolved from greeting cards and photo supplies to the women's shop it is today.

What makes our shop unique is our wide selection of brands typically only found in department stores. We carry major cosmetic lines such as Lancome and Clarins. We offer lingerie from Jockey, Hanky Panky, Wacoal, Eileen West, Miss Elaine, and P.J.

Salvage. We offer bath and body products from Thymes, Caswell-Massey, Crabtree & Evelyn, and Vitabath. In addition, we offer jewelry, hosiery, and fine fragrance for both men and women. Why travel to the mall when you can come to Colonial Stores?

Our success is due to loyal customers who love to shop locally. We pride ourselves on great customer service and developing personal customer relationships. Whether you need a new skincare regimen, an undergarment update, or that emergency pair of pantyhose for a special occasion, we look forward to helping you!

When it comes to revolutions in American life, no ground has proved richer than Concord, Massachusetts—from the shot heard 'round the world to the writings of the Transcendentalists, from the anti-slavery movement to innovations in education and agriculture.

Founded in 1886, the Concord Museum stands at the center of this remarkable legacy. The Museum's renowned collection of over 50,000 objects includes the famous Revere lantern, Emerson's Study, the desk on which Thoreau wrote Walden, and one of the nation's oldest and most respected collections of Americana, including furniture, Revolutionary War-era artifacts, silver, ceramics, and needlework.

The Concord Museum is an irreplaceable cornerstone of the Concord experience for visitors from around the world, as well as a vital educational and cultural resource for residents of Greater Boston. The Concord Museum's ability to connect people with history is evident in outstanding public programs for children, families, and adult lifelong learners; model education programs; innovative exhibitions; award-winning publications; and a distinctive museum shop.

The Concord Museum is accredited by the American Association of Museums, the highest professional recognition and a distinction awarded to less than 5% of museums nationwide.

Maybe it's the best houmous outside the Middle East that draws people in. Or homemade soup juxtaposed with books on principles of Tao, or those 150 small drawers that hold herbs and fresh cinnamon. Maybe it's creams with rose that feed body and soul that bring people in.

Got a cold? The flu? Debra's Natural Gourmet is home of "The Immune Dragon Superbrew—worst tasting, best working", and other herbal and homeopathic remedies. And it's the home of Stark Sisters Granola.

There's sustainably-grown produce and local, organic, and biodynamic meat, cheese, and pesto.

But it's the staff and community at Debra's Natural Gourmet who keep people coming back. It's the glutenfree foods, raw foods, organic chicken, and lentils of every color, and Debra's award-winning kitchen. Yankee Magazine's readers named Debra's one of the three best kitchens in New England!

You can share Debra's recipes because they've been collected in our third cookbook called, The Blue Ribbon Edition: From Our Kitchen to Yours.

In these days of superdupemarkets, Debra's Natural Gourmet is a lively, happy place to shop. If you need cheering up, or just want to cheer, Debra's is the place to go.

At The Fenn School, each boy knows that he has a meaningful place in a community that values and celebrates what makes boys "boys".

Since 1929, Fenn has prepared boys for a lifetime of learning, leadership, and integrity by offering a challenging curriculum that honors diversity. To effectively teach boys in grades 4 through 9, we rely on current research for nurturing and educating the whole boy, and our talented faculty—whose vision, expertise, and practical insight guides boys during this transformative period in their lives.

We build boys' education on the foundation of those qualities that define them as human beings. We empower boys in the classroom, on the stage, and through athletic competition to develop their intellectual curiosity and academic skills, to discover their talents, and to define their moral character. We are inspired and informed by boys' boundless physical energy, their aspiration to be just and even heroic, their delight in being friends and teammates, and their desire to solve problems.

Nashoba Brooks has created a singular learning environment—in our classrooms, laboratories, and studios, and on our stages and playing fields—where the future is taking shape.

Our multi-age, co-ed preschool (ages 3-5) presents the opportunity for children to spend two years being inquisitive and confident learners and community members. Our co-ed program continues in Kindergarten through Grade 3 where we encourage discovery and the acquisition of essential skills. Students develop multicultural perspectives and feel safe in taking on new academic challenges. Our students love coming to school because the classroom is an adventure—and our teachers are their guides on this journey.

In our all-girls middle school (Grades 4-8), students rise to new academic challenges while finding opportunities for self-exploration and leadership. Nashoba Brooks girls learn to answer tough questions, pursue elusive answers, assert well-formed opinions, and meet life's obstacles with sureness, strength, and a sense of humor. As our community's oldest students, they model the empathy, resilience, and grit needed to succeed in high school and the world. They become leaders and respected members in the region's best secondary schools and in the colleges, universities, and careers they choose.

CONCORD
The Heart of the Town

I am Marie Foley and I have owned or operated a business in Concord Center for the past 30 years. I first ran Concord Hand Designs for my sister, Toni Sawyer, and now own Revolutionary Concord by myself.

Revolutionary Concord is an eclectic gift shop offering a mix for all ages ranging from baby showers to golden anniversaries. We offer whimsical, fun, American-made gifts including Colonial Candle tapers with candle accessories, Simon Pearce Glass, stunning jewelry, colorful scarves, wind chimes, baby items, greeting cards, and gift wrap. Let's not forget a wall of Concord and USA souvenirs for Concordians and visitors alike!

In Sept. 2014 I purchased Albright Art supply + gift. Located next door, it is a fully stocked art supply store offering friendly, knowledgeable customer service at affordable prices. We have an extensive range of student and professional-grade art supplies: watercolors, oil paint, sketchbooks, coloring books and pencils, and so much more! Also in stock are children's art supplies and kits and all kinds of "arty" gifts.

I am especially proud of my wonderful staff and their commitment to customer service.

The Concord Orchestra

Concord, MA 01742
978-369-4967
info@concordorchestra.com
www.concordorchestra.com

The Concord Orchestra is composed of 70 musicians living in Concord, Massachusetts and the Greater Boston metropolitan area. Richard Pittman has been the music director and conductor of the Concord Orchestra since 1969. The orchestra was founded in 1953.

Our season consists of three formal concerts performed in the fall, winter, and spring, a family concert in December, and Pops concerts in May. Concerts are held at The 51 Walden Performing Arts Center in Concord.

To encourage young musicians, a young artist competition is held annually and the winner performs a concerto with the orchestra, while the two runners up give pre-concert recitals. Over the years these soloists have demonstrated remarkable artistry and introduced important young talent to the community.

David Griesinger, in a review for the Boston Musical Intelligencer, wrote "The Concord Orchestra mainly consists of serious musicians whose life path diverged from music as a career, but whose enthusiasm and delight in playing is undiminished. Under Pittman's leadership, their performances are consistently delightful. Pittman programs beautiful and sometimes neglected works as well as a few old favorites and brings to them thoughtful and exciting performances."

Since it opened in 1996, The Cottage has become the destination for home owners wanting what no other furniture store or interior designer could offer them: the ultimate "one-stop" shopping experience for all of their interior design needs.

By combining an experienced design team with over 4,000 sq. ft. of retail space and extensive custom capabilities, we offer the resources of the largest furniture store and the personal touch of a small boutique. This combination allows us to provide our customers with a refreshingly unique design that is comprehensive, custom, and coordinated in all aspects.

No matter what the size or location of your design project, we can satisfy your home furnishing needs. Our projects have varied from one room to an entire home, both existing or in construction.

Most furniture stores can help you with floor plans and furniture selections, but they typically offer only limited custom capability; for the rest of the makeover, you're on your own. An interior designer can help you create a custom look, but that often requires the customer to accompany the designers on numerous visits to different stores.

The Cottage is your resource for the entire home—for furniture, window treatments, rugs, accents, everything!

Verrill Farm is operated as a partnership between Stephen and Joan Verrill and daughter Jennifer Verrill Faddoul. In 1982, after years of planning and negotiations, we placed about 200 acres under a permanent Agricultural Preservation Restriction, thus preventing development of this land. One hundred forty acres of the farm are in vegetable production with a wide variety ranging from asparagus to zucchini, with specialties being heirloom tomatoes and sweet corn. Our primary market is our farmstand at 11 Wheeler Rd.

The building has many green features including a rooftop solar array, recycled heat from the refrigeration system, automated lighting, and natural light.

The kitchen/bakery/deli provides fresh, home-style foods and baked goods with extensive use of our own produce. Baked goods, soups, made-to-order sandwiches, and entrees to take home are customer favorites. We strive to offer a fine selection of locally produced foods and products. Please buy local—we do!
